The 2008 Kids Care Coat Drive once again enlisted the support of the City of Bellevue – Youth Link along with 15 area schools, several local community centers and businesses to collect and distribute more than 2,000 pieces of new and gently used outerwear for our neighbors in need.

Rick Teegarden, 16, has been a member of the Bellevue Youth Council for five years. It was through his Youth Council involvement with the Youth Link “Teen Closet” monthly clothing bank that Rick first noticed a need for warm coats. What began as a coat drive at Rick’s middle school in 2004 has grown to collect and distribute more than 5,000 pieces of outerwear over the past five years.

For more information on the Kids Care Coat Drive collection and distribution, contact Rick Teegarden at (425) 401-8651 or e-mail KidsCareCoatDrive@comcast.net.
